The seventh High-level Regional Financing Arrangements (RFAs) Dialogue was held on 12 October 2022 in Washington DC

The IMF and the heads of RFAs exchanged views on the global and regional conjunctures and risks going forward. In this period of heightened fragility and multiple shocks facing the global economy, they reaffirmed their commitment to cooperate closely to help members overcome these difficult challenges. In this context, the French co-chair of the G20 International Financial Architecture Working Group updated participants on the group's priorities, including supporting vulnerable economies and increasing the resilience of the international financial architecture.

RFAs: the Arab Monetary Fund, the ASEAN+3 Macroeconomic Research Office cum the Chiang Mai Initiative Multilateralisation, represented by the People's Bank of China as its 2022 co-chair, the BRICS Contingent Reserve Arrangement, represented by the South African Reserve Bank, the Eurasian Fund for Stabilization and Development, the European Commission, the European Stability Mechanism, and the Latin American Reserve Fund.
