

Lucrezia Reichlin is Professor of Economics at the London Business School, non-executive director of AGEAS Insurance Group, sits on the Board of Morgan Stanley International and its German subsidiary and is a Trustee of IFRS. She is also a Fellow of the Econometric Society and the European Economic Association.

Reichlin has been an active contributor to Centre for Economic Policy Research. She was research director in 2011-2013, first Chairman of the CEPR Euro Area Business Cycle Dating Committee, co-founder and scientist in charge of the Euro Area Business Cycle Network, and is now a trustee.

Reichlin has published numerous papers on econometrics and macroeconomics. She is an expert on forecasting, business cycle analysis and monetary policy. She pioneered now-casting in economics by developing econometrics methods capable of reading the real time data flow through the lenses of a formal econometric model. These methods are now widely used by central banks and private investors around the world.